TELACU Senior Housing TENANT SELECTION PLAN SUMMARY

TELACU Senior Housing is a 74-unit building in Hawthorne, Calif., that operates under the guidelines of the HUD Section 202/8 Program. As such, there are several eligibility requirements that an applicant must meet to become a resident of TELACU Senior Housing.

Applicants interested in applying for housing at TELACU Senior Housing must submit an application to TELACU Residential Management (TRM). Upon receipt of the application, TRM will conduct a preliminary eligibility review to ensure that the applicant is eligible to participate in the HUD Section 202/8 Program. To meet the preliminary eligibility, the Primary Applicant must:

- Be 62 years of age or older (Head of household, co-head, or spouse) OR 18 years of age or older and disabled.
- Not exceed the applicable income limit (very-low-income limit – 50 percent of median income).
- Provide proof of citizenship status or eligible immigration status.
- Submit a completed application (All sections of the application must be filled. If a section of the application does not apply, enter “N/A”).

Please note that meeting the preliminary eligibility requirements does not guarantee the applicant is eligible for housing. All applicants must meet the TELACU Senior Housing Tenant Selection Plan (TSP) requirements.

TELACU Senior Housing is an equal opportunity housing facility, designed to provide housing to very- low-income elderly individuals and families 62 years of age or older or at least 18 years of age or older and disabled under the HUD Section 202/8 Program. However, because 10 percent of the units at TELACU Senior Housing have been architecturally altered for the mobility, hearing and visual impaired as defined in HUD Handbook 4350.3 Rev. 1 Change 2 paragraph 2-32, someone in the family at least 18 years of age must qualify as “needing” the architecturally altered features to apply for or live in these units. A medical professional must verify the need.

In addition to the above requirements federal regulations require that TELACU Senior Housing residents must meet the following:

- Annual income may not exceed the applicable income limit for the program.
- The applicant must be willing to pay the rent calculated using the HUD rules and regulations.
- The unit must be the household’s only residence. At the time of admission, the applicant may not be receiving assistance for any other unit.
- Applicant must meet the owner/management TSP requirements including but not limited to satisfactory credit and criminal background history.
- Applicants must disclose the Social Security number for themselves and all household members.
- All adult members must sign consent forms and verification documents so that management can verify sources of income and eligibility.

PLEASE NOTE: The above information is only a summary of the TSP which may be subject to further revision by Management. A complete copy is available upon request.

The investigative consumer report and/or consumer report(s) will be obtained from the following Investigative Consumer Reporting Agency:

Name: tenantAlert

Telephone Number: (866) 272-8400

Their information and privacy policy can be found at:

Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies through the Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies Act (ICRAA) have assumed a vital role in collecting, assembling, evaluating, compiling, reporting, transmitting, transferring, or communicating information on consumers for employment, and insurance purposes, and for the purposes relating to the hiring of dwelling units, subpoenas, court orders, licensure and other lawful purposes. The California legislature finds there is a need that Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies exercise their grave responsibilities with fairness, impartiality, and a respect for consumers rights to privacy. The crime of identity theft in this new computer era has exploded and has become the fastest growing white-collar crime in America. The unique nature of this crime means that it can often go undetected for years without the victim being aware that his or her identity has been misused. Because notice of identity theft is critical before the victim can take steps to stop and prosecute this crime, consumers are best protected if they are given copies of any investigative consumer reports made on them. The ICRAA requires that Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies adopt reasonable procedures for meeting the needs of commerce for information related to the renting of dwellings in a matter which is fair and equitable to the consumer, with regard to the confidentiality, accuracy, relevancy, and proper utilization of the information in accordance with the requirements of the ICRAA.

The ICRAA gives you specific rights, as outlined below. You may have additional rights under federal law. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington DC 20006.

We ("Owner") may obtain information about you for renting a dwelling unit from a third-party consumer reporting agency (Investigative Consumer Reporting Agency). You may be the subject of a "consumer report" and/or an "investigative consumer report" which may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and/or mode of living, and can involve personal interviews with sources such as your neighbors, friends, supervisors, or associates. These reports may contain information regarding your credit history, criminal history, social security verification, motor vehicle records ("driving records"), verification of your education or employment history, or other background checks. Further, you understand that information may be requested from various Federal, State, County and other agencies that maintain records concerning your past activities relating to your driving, criminal, civil, education, credit, and other experiences. Your credit history will be requested as the information substantially relates to the ability to rent the dwelling unit.

AUTHORIZATION FORM

You have the right, upon written request made within a reasonable time period after receipt of this notice, to request whether a consumer report has been conducted about you, disclosure of the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report, and to request a copy of your report.

Please be advised that the nature and scope of the most common form of investigative consumer report obtained with regard to applicants for renting is an investigation into your rental and credit history. The scope of this notice and authorization is all-encompassing, however, allowing us to obtain consumer reports and investigative consumer reports now and throughout your tenancy to the extent permitted by law.

You should carefully consider whether to exercise your right to request disclosure of the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report.

California Civil Code §1786.22.

- a) An investigative consumer reporting agency shall supply files and information required under Section 1786.10 during normal business hours and on reasonable notice.
- b) Files maintained on you shall be made available for your visual inspection, as follows:
 - 1) In person, if you appear in person and furnish proper identification. A copy of his file shall also be available to the consumer for a fee not to exceed the actual costs of copying.
 - 2) By certified mail, if you make a written request, with proper identification, for copies to be sent to a specified address. Investigative consumer reporting agencies complying with requests for certified mailings under this section shall not be liable for disclosures to third parties caused by mishandling of mail after such mailings leave the investigative consumer reporting agencies.
 - 3) A summary of all information contained in files on you and required to be provided by Section 1786.10 shall be provided by telephone, if you have made a written request, with proper identification for telephone disclosure, and the toll charge, if any, for the telephone call is prepaid by or charged directly to you.
- c) The term "proper identification" as used in subdivision (b) shall mean that information generally deemed sufficient to identify a person. Such information includes documents such as a valid driver's license, social security number, military identification card, and credit cards. Only if the consumer is unable to reasonably identify himself with the information described above, may an investigative consumer reporting agency require additional information concerning the consumer's employment and personal or family history in order to verify his identity.
- d) The investigative consumer reporting agency shall provide trained personnel to explain to the consumer any information furnished him pursuant to Section 1786.10.
- e) The investigative consumer reporting agency shall provide a written explanation of any coded information contained in files maintained on a consumer. This written explanation shall be distributed whenever a file is provided to a consumer for visual inspection as required under Section 1786.22.
- f) The consumer shall be permitted to be accompanied by one other person of his choosing, who shall furnish reasonable identification. An investigative consumer reporting agency may require the consumer to furnish a written statement granting permission to the consumer reporting agency to discuss the consumer's file in such person's presence.

If you checked the box above, you will receive a copy of your investigative consumer report within three business days of receipt of your request. I agree that the Owner, and its agents and/or employees, may rely upon this form to order background reports, including investigative consumer reports from companies other than Owner without asking me for my authorization again as allowed by law.
